"All Gods and Goddesses reside in this mala. All should worship this mala. This is an ''Akshamalika'' (garland of letters). All mantras (whose count is 7 crores) and all knowledge resides in this mala."
- Akshamalikopanishad

This mala maybe worn or can be kept at the altar for worship or even carried along in a pouch. The beads in this mala represent all the nine planets and all the Deities. This is one of the most powerful healing mala that one can possess.Testimonials received from wearers over the years confirm its powers.

A POWERFUL COMBINATION

SIDDHA MALA® is a collector-grade selected combination of 1 to 14 mukhis*, Gaurishankar and Ganesh Rudraksha beads strung face to face and tail to tail as stated in our ancient Shastras. It is the most powerful Rudraksha mala for a multidiscipline approach as it represents all planets, Gods and Goddesses. Making it one of the most sought after power combination and a trademark registered product of Rudralife.

CONFIGURATION OF SIDDHA MALA®

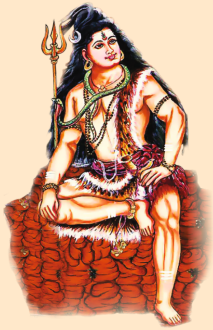

2 Mukhi x 3	5 Mukhi x 3
3 Mukhi x 3	6 Mukhi x 3
4 Mukhi x 3	7 Mukhi x 3
8 to 14 Mukhi x 1 each	1 Mukhi halfmoo 1
Gaurishankar - 1	Ganesh - 1

Total 27 + 1 = 28

It is strung with wool, and woolen spacers are placed between the beads to protect them as well as to provide an 'Asana' or seat to all the Rudraksha. Wool makes the mala stronger, more flexible and light-weight. It may be worn or carried in a pouch on the person, or placed at the altar.

WHO SHOULD WEAR SIDDHA MALA?

This is a powerful healing mala ideal for achievers and ambitious people who want to reach top levels in their career and businesses. One may get everything that one aspires for viz, Dharma, Artha, Kama and Moksha.

Depending on the availability instead of 14 mukhi bead, Rudralife gives a 15 mukhi Rudraksha (Pashupatinath). Mala's effectiveness is increased as 15 mukhi has all qualities of 14 mukhi, additionally a 15 mukhi is a good alternative of 1 mukhi of Nepal.
